UINTAH PEOPLE HOPEFUL,

PROVO, May 10.—Rev. S. H. Goodwin is back from a trip to Vernal, where he went to visit the Congregational school located there. Mr. Goodwin also visited some of the new towns in the reservation country. He found the settlers working hard and hopeful of the prosperity of the country. In this hope they have sufficient reason as the land is remarkably productive under irrigation and crops this season are looking fine. The people are engaged in several irrigation projects, and the government has a big force of men at work at Independence, about seven miles southwest of Fort Duchesne, on an irrigation project to furnish water for the Indians. With water taken on the land and the coming railroad passing through the country it will become one of the richest sections of the state.

MOAB.

ILLICIT LIQUOR SELLING ROUSES PUBLIC SPIRIT

(Special Correspondence.)
MOAB, Grand Co., May 9.—A. E Turner was arrested yesterday on the charge of selling liquor without a license, and was to have been given hearing before Judge Powell today, but asked for a change of venue, insisting that the judge was prejudiced against him. The 'boot-leggers' are afraid of Judge Powell since last winter, when he fined one fellow $150 for selling liquor without a license. County Atty, Roberts objected to the change of venue, but Mr. Hikle, counsel for the defense, maintained rigidly that Powell was a bitter enomy of Mr. Turner's, Finally the request was granted and the trial will be heard Monday in Judge Crape's court.

The particular offense which A. E. Turner is charged with is that of May 2 for selling Arthur Ray a pint of whisky for $1. Mrs. Lottle Larsen is the complaining witness. She was one of the leader's in circulating the petition about a year ago to the town heard and the county commissioners to raise the license so as to drive the saloons out of business in this county. There is a strong feeling in the town against this kind of lawlessness and the sheriff and other county and city officers are working hard to suppress the sale of intoxicating liquors, especially among the young men who are under age,

LOGAN.

FOOD INSPECTOR PUTS BAN ON SHORT WEIGHT GOODS

LOGAN, May 9.- Deputy Food and airy Commissioner J. E. Johnson has eturned from a trip through the southern part of the county and will eave here tomorrow laden with samples of produce that he has secured for the purpose of analysis. In most of the stores of the county he found things in pretty good shape with the exception of short weight goods that have been shipped in from the outside for the most part. Several of the firms here who make meals and other stuff of that kind were tied up with orders to stop seiling until they com-plied with the law as to weight, and properly labeling the goods offered for sale. In Logan the groe have been ordered to place all per lable stuff under screens by the lith of the month or charge selling it.

LOGAN BRIEFS.

The committees in charge of the matter of receiving and entertaining the Woodmen of the World when they meet in the district convention, May 17, 18 and 19, have arranged to have a committee meet the delegates at Cache Junction and escort them to this city where they will be entertained at a reception at the Boosters' club, at 9 o'clock that evening. On the evening of the following day there will be a banquet, served by the Women of Woodcraft also a parade and a ball. Charles McNiel one of the proprietors of the Banner Grocery and Meat Market of this city was hauled into court this morning upon complaint of the local sanitary officer for slaughtering animals on his place in the Fifth ward. He was adjudged guilty and ing animals on his place in the Fifth ward. He was adjudged guilty and fined $15, which he paid.

Rudolph Neiderhauser, who was sentenced to three months in State prison for failing to support his family, returned to his home here today and at once began work for the county.

MOTHERS DAY IS OBSERVED.

FARMINGTON, May 9.—Mothers day was observed here yesterday with special services in the churches, which were appropriately decorated for the occasion. L. E. Abbott was the speaker at the Farmington L. D. S. meetinghouse and in a brief but impressive address paid a tribute to the mothers which touched the hearts of all present. In addition to the address a program of songs and readings was given. At the close of the service flowers were presented to each mother attending.
